

2026 NORTH GREENBUSH HISTORICAL CALENDAR

The Country Grove Inn was an iconic restaurant in the town for many years. The building was originally built as a farmhouse by the Vandenberg family in 1797. The Filuta family operated the establishment affectionately known as "Building G" by the students across the street at Hudson Valley Community College. It was taken down for commercial development in 2016.

(Photo from the Historian's collection)